

A is the activity result

P is the sum of Problem Point Values of problems a person has solved

D is an accessibility-of-points value and is calculated by adding Problem Point Values of all problems solved (including the ones solved by me) and dividing it by the attendance (not including me)